This Week...

Welcome back to a new half-term! I trust you all enjoyed a restful break. It's been wonderful to see the eager excitement on our pupils' faces as they've embraced the inflatable pool. This fantastic addition has provided opportunities for all and will continue into next week. Our Worship Ambassadors led an inspiring session on God's Big Question, demonstrating their leadership and spiritual growth...also some good ideas for Homework! May I kindly remind you to return your parents' evening slips as soon as possible? Your prompt response helps us to organise effectively. Lastly, don't forget about our upcoming Book Fair (see below) - a perfect opportunity to nurture your child's love for reading. Let's embrace this new half-term with enthusiasm and a commitment to learning. Have a lovely Weekend,
Mrs Whitaker

What is more important to do things right or to do the right thing?

Scholastic Book Fair

On Thursday, Friday, Monday & Tuesday 7th-12th November we will be holding a book fair in school. All parents/carers are asked to collect their children from the playgrounds as normal then walk round to the front office door to allow time for the staff to set the fair up. You will be receiving a letter with some more information about a competition running alongside it.

Books will be available from £2.99, please try to bring change wherever possible as we have a limited supply in school and remember it is cash only. This does help us raise a small amount for school at the same time so do please come along and have a look. We hope to see you there!

Anti Bullying Week—Odd Socks Day

On Tuesday 12th November we will be kicking off Anti Bullying Week with 'Odd Socks Day!' in school. To raise awareness about anti bullying and 'being kind', we will be asking the children to come to school in odd socks—and even odd shoes if they wish! Please do make sure your child is able to play out safely in their footwear though. We will also be holding a special worship led by our Leadership Ambassadors, ably supported by Miss Reid.

Caritas Social Worker

I am pleased to be able to inform you that we have a new Caritas Social Worker starting with us on Monday. Her name is Gabriella Guarino and she will be with us during the interim of Rosie's leave. She will be working with us on Tuesdays and Fridays. Initially, she will pick up where Rosie left off in terms of working with individual children and then we will be in the position of making any new referrals for her. I am sure you will all make her feel welcome in and around school.

Maths EYFS—Parent Workshop

Miss Hines will be holding a parent workshop for all EYFS parents on 7th November 2024 @ 2:45pm. Please do come along and find out how you can support your child at home with their learning.

Parent Pay

Parent Pay is now up and running if you haven't sign up yet, please contact the office. Going forward ALL parents will have to use Parent Pay as it will be a method of communication for school.

Also, if you haven't already, please can you ensure we have an up to date email address for you all by emailing: bursar@holytrinitycofe.lancs.sch.uk OR cbreen@holytrinitycofe.lancs.sch.uk so that we can verify your email address.

Please note this applies to ALL parents, regardless as to whether you pay for school meals or not.

My Anxious Child Parent Workshop

On Friday 8th November, we are holding a workshop for Parents regarding information if you feel your child suffers from anxiety. Professionals will be in school with resources and signposts to organisations where you can access help and support. It will start at 9:30am so please do come along. Coffee and Biscuits at the ready!

Children in Need

On Friday 15th November we will be fundraising in school for Children in Need. We will be holding a non uniform day in school in return for £1 donation. We are asking the children to wear something spotty! Our Leadership Ambassadors are currently discussing further ideas for fundraising on the day. Watch this space!
